

“Government and agricultural change in comparative perspective”

Workshop arranged within the International Scientific Coordination Network (GDRI):
“CRIses and Changes in the European Countryside in the long run”
(CRICEC)

Lund, Sweden
16–17 October, 2014

Schedule

Thursday, October 16

13.00-13.10 Welcome and introduction to the topic.

13.10-14.30 First session (2 papers)

- Jean-Pierre Jessenne & Nadine Vivier: Land reforms in Western Europe, 1760-1850: Answer to crises or crises factor?

- Peter M. Jones: The state and agricultural reform c. 1760-1840.

14.30-14.45 Coffee

14.45-16.05 Second session (2 papers)

- Gerard Béaur & Jean-Michel Chevet: Changing ownership to improve agriculture? State policy in France (18th-19th centuries).

- Carsten Porskrog Rasumussen: The agrarian reform policies of Scandinavia ca. 1750-1820.

16.05-16.20 Coffee

16.20-17.40 Third session (2 papers)

- Peter Moser: Contested strategies for growth: Free trade and protectionism re-visited. Switzerland 1880-1914, and beyond.

- Jordi Planas: In the aftermath of the phylloxera plague: State intervention in wine markets in France and Spain in the early twentieth century.

20.00 Dinner at Bantorget 9 (purple star on map below)

Friday, October 17

9.00-10.20 Fourth session (2 papers)

- Ulrich Pfister & Michael Kopsidis: Institutional change and agricultural growth in late eighteenth and nineteenth-century Germany: an overview.

- Mats Olsson & Patrick Svensson: From crises to cornucopia? Institutional change and agricultural growth in late eighteenth and nineteenth-century Sweden.

10.20-10.40 Coffee

10.40-12.00 Fifth session (2 papers)

- Andrew Gritt: Land drainage, landscape and agricultural change: State authority and intervention in England, c. 1550-1850.

- Henrik Svensson : The impact of enclosure and privatization on the investments in landesque capital. Examples from southern Sweden.

12.00-13.00 Lunch at Medicon Village

13.00-14.00 Summary and discussion.